DAY 2, Friday July 13

WELL DONE AGAIN! It was an equally fantastic achievement to have all but two of the 38 rally cars drive in to the hotel this evening – especially on Friday 13th! Day 2 of Liege-Brescia-Liege 2018 has been a superb, warm sunny day of sweeping open roads interspersed with sudden, surprising, hairpin hillclimbs that have given all the cars and crews a good workout.

A real bonus late morning was to be welcomed to the wonderful Autoundspielzugmuseum Boxenstop at Tubingen by Herr Klink himself, the owner, who is a true enthusiast and a great supporter of the rally. He had invited local classic car enthusiasts and had a great turnout from Morris Minor Traveller to V12 E-type to welcome the cars.

Deepest commiserations to Jason and Amanda on the demise of the Berkeley B95, which was going so well, but had its Friday 13th moment with a rod through the block – unfortunately an all-too-common event with these Royal Enfield-powered Berkeleys, especially if they've been put together by an inexperienced previous owner: we lost one the same way in 2008. There have been a few more mechanical mishaps along the way - Bill Cowing and Richard Seeley in the lovely Autobianchi Bianchina Trasformabile had a driveshaft joint fail, but were able to change it under the watchful eye of the RAC.

The finish at the BMW Museum looked magnificent, with the cars parked in front and a very good buffet in the MI Café. On the results front, there have been a few changes to the top 10 in each category, but the leaders remain unchanged.

Tomorrow, we head through Austria into Italy and serious mountains, finishing at the breathtaking location of Lago Misurina and the Grand Hotel Misurina. Here's hoping the weather holds!

NOTES

1. TEAMS – What happened? We have only one Fiat team contesting the Marque Team Trophy. Entry is NOT automatic – you must put a team together and enter it. If you already have a team planned you can enter it at SIGN ON THIS MORNING – NO LATER!
2. A plea from our wonderful luggage van crew – PLEASE take your luggage to the van in the morning, don't leave it at hotel reception.
3. Dehydration is a major issue in this heat – if you find yourself and your co-driver getting cranky, DRINK WATER!! It really is important for your health and will magically avoid a lot of grumpy moments!

Have a great Saturday!
